STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER FOR THREE-DAY EXTENSION ON CERTAIN PRETRIAL CONFERENCE
FILINGS

21 THE PARTIES HEREBY STIPULATE, THROUGH THEIR ATTORNEYS OF 22 RECORD,

23 1. The parties are in receipt of the Court's Order Granting in Part and Denying in 24 Part Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (Docket 107). The Order will obviously affect many of the items contemplated by the joint pretrial statement such as witnesses, exhibits, and potential in limine motions.

25 2. Defense counsel Jon A. Heaberlin is starting a 42 U.S.C. §1983 jury trial with 26 Judge Beth Labson Freeman in San Jose, on June 4, 2018, although jury selection will 27 occur tomorrow, June 1, 2018. Mr. Heaberlin expects the trial will be very short, and the 28 jury should have the case by Wednesday, June 6, 2018.

1 3. The parties jointly request a short (i.e., three-day) extension on the items
2 presently due Tuesday, June 5, 2018 in the Court's Standing Order for Civil Jury Trials
3 Before District Judge Jon S. Tigar (joint pretrial statement, in limine motions, etc.) to June 4 8, 2018. This would coincide with the deadline for the Jury Materials (June 8, 2018) in the 5 Court's Standing Order. The parties agree that this stipulation will not affect the other
6 dates in the Court's Standing Order, such as the Opposition deadline for motions in limine.

ORDER

The parties having stipulated and good cause appearing, the items contemplated by the Court's Standing Order for Civil Jury Trials Before District Judge Jon S. Tigard as presently due on June 5, 2018 (i.e., pretrial conference statement, in limine motions, etc.) shall now be due on June 8, 2018. All other dates and deadlines shall remain in effect.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: June 1, 2018

JUDGE OF THE U.S. DISTRICT COURT
